FREEDOM

FOR THE FUTURE

Equipping the church with lessons from our past.

Constantine, the Reformation, and Globalisation: What do these events have to do with the church of today —and tomorrow?

In this public seminar, leading church history scholar Dr Douglas A. Foster traces three of the most significant turning points in Christian history.

Not just a history lesson, Dr Foster's insights converge on Christianity right now, using lessons from the past to help Christians move ahead as a unified body, reaching out to the world.
